

TRANSAMERICAN EXPERIENCE CONFERENCE

UNIVERSITY OF OREGON, NOVEMBER 5TH -7TH, 2015

John E. Jaqua Center and Straub Hall*

This conference aims to explore the pluriversal spaces for thought that one finds in the Americas and the way these may be brought together in diverse crossings, encounters, and dialogues.

Mario Acosta

(De Paul University)

Ramón Grosfoguel

(UC Berkeley)

Eduardo Mendieta

(Penn State University)

Omar Rivera

(Southwestern University)

Nancy Tuana

(Penn State University)

Linda Alcoff

(CUNY)

Gregory Pappas

(Texas A & M)

Elena Flores Ruíz

(University of Florida Gulf Coast)

Carlos Sanchez

(San Jose State University)

José-Antonio Orosco

(Oregon State University)

As well as many other speakers from philosophy and other disciplines

Sponsored by the Philosophy Department, Latin American Studies, Ethnic Studies, the Division for Equity and Inclusion, Oregon Center for the Humanities

For the full program and times go to: <http://philosophy.uoregon.edu>

(* Saturday morning concurrent sessions at Straub Hall 251-254)